The proposed special dividend for the year 2025 is a result of our successful asset management and robust free cash flow generation over the past year. This special dividend is a non-recurring event, undertaken in accordance with prudent financial discipline to ensure sufficient liquidity to support its ongoing operations and future investment plan for sustainable growth. This special dividend represents a strategic opportunity to optimize surplus liquidity and deliver exceptional returns to our shareholders. Following the payment of a non-recurring special dividend, the company will maintain its financial resilience and Investment Grade credit rating.
